JUDGMENT

Following question of law has been referred for opinion of this Court by the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal, Chandigarh Bench, Chandigarh arising out of its order dated 4.8.1997 in I.T.A. No.143 & C.O.No.24/Chandi/95 in respect of assessment year 1992-93:-

> " Whether, on the facts and in the circumstances of the case, the Tribunal was right in law in upholding the order of the CIT(A) cancelling the penalty imposed on the assessee by the AO u/s 271B on the ground that this was not exigible in a case where audit report u/s 44AB had been obtained on or before the specified date and the same was filed alongwith the return u/s 139(4) and there being no notice issued u/s 142(1) to file the return of income?"

We find that the issue stands covered against the revenue by the judgment of this Court in Income Tax Officer v. Kaysons India, (2000) 246 ITR 489. After considering the relevant provisions, this Court observed at page 492:-

> "It is, therefore, evident that the default or failure to file the return along with the audit report on or before the specified date is not hit by the provisions of section 271B. It is not the case of the Revenue that the assessee has failed to get the accounts audited or has failed to obtain the report of such audit in terms of section 44AB before the specified date. It is also evident that no return had been filed either under sub-section (1) of section 139 or in response to any notice under clause (i) of sub-section (1) of section 142 and as such there could possibly be no default of not furnishing the audit report along with such a non-existent return. The return under sub-section (1) of section 139 in this case could be filed up to November 30, 1990. However, the assessee had filed the return on December 31, 1990, which was a return filed under sub-section (4) of section 139 and this return was duly accompanied by the audit report obtained by the assessee in accordance with the provisions of section 44AB. Thus, according to us, the default for which penalty had been levied was not covered by the provisions of section 271B and the Commissioner of Income-tax (Appeals) and the Tribunal were justified in holding that no penalty was leviable."

Accordingly, the question is answered against the revenue and in favour of the assessee.
